

4C Reference and Resource Guide (4C R&R)

The 4C R&R would be divided into separate files. One file would contain all of the necessary information required for accessibility and mobility and would be used as a roadmap for Admissions and Pathways Coordinators. The other files would be separate program specific files archiving all program activity and resources. These files would be used by everyone teaching and supporting the learners.

Table of Contents

Admissions

- Articulation agreements

Program Pathways

- Bachelor of Indigenous Social Work

  - Admission requirements

  - Transfer options

  - Faculty roster

  - Cultural Advisors

  - Student Success Facilitators

- Bachelor of Law and Justice

  - Admission requirements

  - Transfer options

  - Faculty roster

  - Cultural Advisors

  - Student Success Facilitators

- Bachelor of Science: Food Sustainability

  - Admission requirements

  - Transfer options

  - Faculty roster

  - Cultural Advisors

  - Student Success Facilitators

- Bachelor of Health Science: Midwifery

  - Admission requirements

Transfer options

Faculty roster

Cultural Advisors

Student Success Facilitators

Social Work Program resources

Course outlines/modules

Assignments

Assessments

Weekly schedules

Lesson Plans

Storyboards (for online delivery)

Bibliography

Articles

Videos

Websites

Guest Speakers

Field Trips

Law & Justice Program resources

Course outlines/modules

Assignments

Assessments

Weekly schedules

Lesson Plans

Storyboards (for online delivery)

Bibliography

Articles

Videos

Websites

Guest Speakers

Field Trips

Food Sustainability Program resources

Course outlines/modules

Assignments

Assessments

Weekly schedules

Lesson Plans

Storyboards (for online delivery)

Bibliography

Articles

Videos

Websites

Guest Speakers

Field Trips

Midwifery Program resources

Course outlines/modules

Assignments

Assessments

Weekly schedules

Lesson Plans

Storyboards (for online delivery)

Bibliography

Articles

Videos

Websites

Guest Speakers

Field Trips